PAGE 170 IN THE BLACK DIVINE LITURGY BOOKS

"Pray to God to avert misfortunes, and—at the same time—renounce your own will as being a sinful, blind will. Entrust those nearest to your heart to the all-holy and all-wise will of God. 'Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but flesh is weak.' (Matt. 26:41) When you are surrounded by afflictions, pray more often—that you may draw the special grace of God towards you. Only with the help of special grace are we able to surmount temporal misfortunes." The Cup of Christ—St. Ignatius Brianchaninov

There are three things, my brethren, by which faith stands firm, devotion remains constant, and virtue endures. They are prayer, fasting, and mercy. Prayer knocks at the door, fasting obtains, mercy receives.

Let this be the pattern for all men when they practice mercy: show mercy to others in the same way, with the same generosity, with the same promptness, as you want others to show mercy to you. St. Peter Chrysologus

A place does not save you. There is no place where you can flee from yourself. St. Nikon of Optina

God has given us a world to live in that is full of beauties and wonders and He has given us not only eyes to see them but minds to understand them, if we only have the sense to look at them in that light. Lord Baden-Powell—Founder of Scouting
